Exchange Point Partnership

A proposal from SwapSutra to [Partner Store Name] — 30-day pilot

THE PROPOSAL IN ONE LINE

Readers discover books online on SwapSutra and meet at your store to exchange them. The platform is ours, the place is yours. Every person who walks in for an exchange is a reader standing inside a bookstore — and they cost you nothing to acquire.

A NOTE WE WOULD RATHER MAKE FIRST

On the face of it we look like competitors: you sell pre-loved books, SwapSutra lets readers exchange them. We would rather raise that ourselves than leave it unsaid. SwapSutra does not sell books — it circulates them, and readers who circulate books read more, and readers who read more buy more. SwapSutra also supports Sell and Rent, which means your inventory can be listed and sold through it. This is an additional counter, not a competing one.

SCOPE — THREE WAYS THE STORE IS USED

- 1 Official Exchange Point
Two readers who have agreed an exchange on SwapSutra meet at your store to complete it. Your store name and address appear on the platform as a designated Exchange Point. This solves our single biggest obstacle — strangers are reluctant to meet, and a real shop removes that hesitation.
- 2 Monthly Swap Meetup
A two-hour session at your store, once a month. Every attendee brings three books they have finished. SwapSutra handles the invitations, the running of the session and the clean-up; the store provides the space only. Expected attendance: 15–20 readers.
- 3 SwapSutra Corner
A small shelf or table inside the store holding books in circulation. It makes the partnership visible and gives your walk-in customers a reason to ask about it.

WHAT EACH SIDE GAINS — STATED PLAINLY

[Partner Store]	SwapSutra
Qualified footfall at no cost. Everyone arriving for an exchange is a book buyer already inside your shop. No advertising spend reaches a customer this well-matched.	A physical venue. Our largest obstacle is where two strangers safely meet. Your store answers it.
An additional sales channel. List your pre-loved stock on SwapSutra — no commission, no listing fee, no subscription.	Credibility. An established store's name gives a young platform trust we cannot build alone in months.
Recognition. Named as a Founding Partner on swapsutra.in with your store name, address and link. Lifetime free access to the platform.	A first foothold in Haryana. We currently operate only around Saharanpur.
A recurring reason to return. A monthly meetup means something is happening at your store every month.	Inventory. Our library is small. Your listings would make it substantial.
	We have set out our own gains as openly as yours. A partnership that benefits only one side does not last, and we would rather you could see the balance for yourself.

TERMS — AND WHAT THIS IS NOT

- No money changes hands in either direction — no fee, commission, or joining amount.
- No equity or ownership — both businesses remain entirely separate and independently owned.
- No exclusivity — you remain free to sell anywhere and work with anyone.
- Either side may end this at any time with one week's notice, without explanation.
- No liability for the store. Any dispute over a book's condition or a failed exchange is handled through SwapSutra's own dispute process. The store provides a meeting place only and carries no responsibility for transactions between readers.
- Customer data stays separate — your customers remain yours, our readers remain ours. Neither party shares personal data with the other.

PILOT: 30 DAYS, THEN A DECISION

25 titles your stock, listed on SwapSutra	1 meetup held at your store	5 exchanges completed via the partnership	Day 30 review together: continue, adjust, or stop
---	---------------------------------------	---	---

Next step — a twenty-minute call to settle three things: where in Haryana the store is, a date for the first meetup, and which 25 titles go up first. If the pilot works, we would put a short written agreement in place before continuing. And if this is not the right time for you, a plain no is welcome — it will not be taken badly, and we will not ask twice.
